OUR CO-OP BRIGHTON -ACKNOWLEDGING OUR HISTORY, SHARING OUR KNOWLEDGE

image description: Marsha P Johnson wearing her Crown of Flowers in full colour against a rainbow colour background

WHITEHAWK WOMAN

facial reconstruction of a young woman from the Neolithic encampment at Whitehawk Hill at Brighton Museum m ancient DNA. “(Brighton Museum) image description: a young brown-skinned woman holds a carved pendant on the leather necklace she is wearing. Her black hair is braided in a crown around her had.

ANCESTORS

Beachy Head Woman and Cheddar man; our longtime presence on this land

Image description : Brown skin woman , gazing forward, shoulder-length black curls held back off her face; dark brown skin man , high cheekbones, gentle smile, long black hair

WHITEHAWK HILL

Whitehawk Hill today is a richly diverse biome, home to plant, human and non-human animal life image 1: brown sheep grazing on grass pasture on WH, sea & sky just visible in background.

image 2: view from WH looking east. Foreground- greenery, tree, shrubs, small white wildflowers.middle ground - 5 x 7or 8-storey tower blocks and several streets of lower rise blocks and houses. background blue sky and high fluffy clouds.

image 3: view from WH looking west . foreground :lush green grasses and rows of pink wildflowers, trees in full foliage. middle ground city of Brightonincluding 2 tower blocks a& other buildings. Background calm blue sea and clear late-afternoon sky.

STANDING ON THE SHOULDERS OF GIANTS - RISING OUT OF COMMUNITY

https://www.black-history.org.uk/

Image description: logos for Brighton based Black and brown community organisations - Mosaic, QTIPOC narratives, Radical Rhizomes, Women of Colour Brighton, Writing Our Legacy and the book cover of the Hidden Sussex Anthology ("fiction, non-fiction and poetry from the BME experience")

MOSAIC
BLACK AND MIXED-PARENTAGE FAMILY GROUP

POWER TO THE QTIPOC

RADICAL
Rhizomes
QTIPOC SOCIAL GATHERINGS

women*
of colour
"TRANS & NON BINARY WELCOME
LAST THURSDAY OF THE MONTH - 6.30PM
THE MARLBOROUGH
PRINCES STREET BN2 1RD

WOL
WRITING OUR LEGACY

LEARNING IN LOCKDOWN - INTERCONNECTION WITH THE ELEMENTS

Image 1: cherry tomatoes ripeneing on the plant.

Image 2: green celery leaves growing.

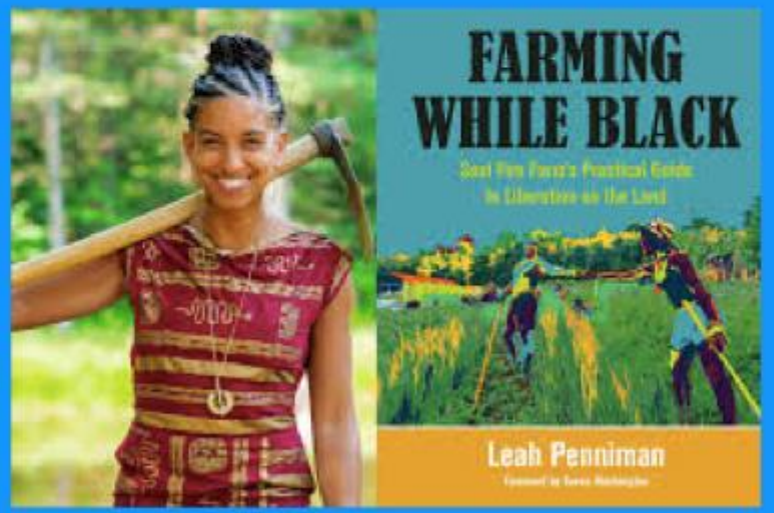

Image 3: large star shaped yellow courgette flower on the plant.

Image 4: campfire on a pebble beach with sea and sky

LEARNING IN LOCKDOWN - ZOOM ACCESS

Cooperation Jackson

Soul Fire Farm

Josina Calliste - Land In Our Names

SUSSEX BASED: AWESIDE FARM & CLAIR RATINON

SUPPORT FROM MAJORITY-WHITE ALLY GROUPS SKYLARK, SEASALT, ROSA BRIDGE, SEA CITY, YELLOW BRICK ROAD (RADICAL FAERIES) AND BHCLT

SEASALT
HOUSING CO-OPERATIVE

BHCLT

SEA CITY
CO-OPERATIVE

